THE GARDEN SHOW AT HERSTMONCEUX CASTLE

Herstmonceux Castle, Hailsham BN27 1RN
16 - 18 April 2027
Open Daily 10am – 4pm (last entry 3pm)

Art, Design, Your Garden & You!

The Garden Show is delighted to announce that its Spring event will take place at the magnificent Herstmonceux Castle for the second year. Set beside the stunning historic grounds on the old Cricket field, this inspiring show offers the perfect opportunity to plan, refresh, and enhance both your garden and your home.

With over 180 stalls, including specialist plant growers, visitors can enjoy expert advice on choosing the right plants and positioning them for success. Browse a wide variety of garden goods, artisan designs, homeware, garden furniture, fashion accessories, and delicious country foods. The show proudly supports local independent businesses, with many exhibitors coming from the surrounding area. The Studio Shops and Weald Craft Tent will showcase beautiful artisan crafts alongside live demonstrations.

Apart from a great shopping experience, the show features a full programme of free daily talks. Gardening expert Paul Slater will be on hand daily to answer plant-related questions and will present a daily talk.

Sammie Venn, will give daily Well-Being sessions, 'The Healing Garden', relaxing and realigning the body, heart and soul through harmonic sound.

We are joined on Saturday by entomologist Dr Ian Bedford who will host a Pest Clinic, identifying insect samples brought in by visitors and offering eco-friendly gardening solutions. He will also present a free talk on coping with garden pests.

Ben Cross of Crosslands Nursery returns on Sunday to share insights into the British Cut Flower Industry, championing the message that 'British Flowers Rock!'.

Visitors can enjoy guided tours of Herstmonceux Castle, bookable on the day, explore the castle grounds, and be thrilled by Huxley Birds of Prey spectacular aerial displays and the Jazz Magic Trio will delight with their vintage music.

Younger visitors will love Crazee Hazee, the show's jester, who will teach circus juggling skills and host daily Punch & Judy shows.

If you can't attend this event, don't miss the upcoming Garden Show Rookesbury Park (23–25 July). It promises to be a wonderful day out for the whole family — life truly is wonderful in your garden!
